

Voice of The Lord

The LORD your God will make you abound in all the work of your hand, in the fruit of your body, in the increase of your livestock, and in the produce of your land for good. For the LORD will again rejoice over you for good as He rejoiced over your fathers, if you obey the voice of the LORD your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which are written in this Book of the Law, and if you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.
Deuteronomy 30:9-10

My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me. John 10:27

There is ample evidence, including multiple examples, of the Lord speaking to people --His and others. The obvious conclusion as we examine Old Testament verses is that the voice of the Lord is a call to obedience and judgment. God is giving the boundaries of conduct for a good life. He reveals that His desire is our good. We must turn to Him with all our hearts and souls. In the New Testament, the complete picture comes to light. Here the voice of the Lord is about loving direction and intimacy. In Immanuel sessions, we hear the voice of the Lord throughout our time with Him with a coach. Having built capacity to face difficult situations, with Immanuel present, He guides us into righteousness, peace and joy.
