

Primary Goal of Immanuel Prayer

---

Our goal is to see Jesus for who He really is. We learn to experience Him in the past and in the present. The other goal is to gain a secure attachment with the Lord. Secure attachment is:

- When I look for Him,
I can always find Him.
- When I find Him,
He is always happy to see me.
- He is my solution,
not He has my solution.
- When we get separated,
we can always come back together.

Jesus came to be Immanuel, God with us.

He alone meets our every need and heals all. Immanuel prayer is not solely about inner healing. It's about knowing and experiencing Him. It's about intimacy. It's about a living relationship with the Saviour.

What does Immanuel mean?

Immanuel means “God with us” and the Immanuel Approach to Intimacy and Life is a prayer method and lifestyle that deepens our intimacy with God. With Immanuel, as we focus on and engage directly with Jesus, past pain is permanently resolved and barriers between our hearts and the Lord are removed.

Immanuel isn't just a teaching on inner healing: it's a pathway of practical hope whereby we can see Jesus as He is and be changed.

Immanuel - God With Us!

The Immanuel Approach, sometimes called Immanuel Prayer, was developed by Dr. Karl Lehman, a psychiatrist specializing in brain function related to inner healing and spirituality. Pastor Patti Velotta converged paths with Dr. Karl in a divine appointment, which has led to more than 14 years of deep healing through encounters with Jesus.

Immanuel Prayer changed Pastor Patti's life, and became foundational in her Christian faith. She wrote the book Immanuel: A Practicum as a practical handbook for applying and coaching the Immanuel Approach. Participants in this Immanuel Beginner Seminar will receive a copy of her book.
